Jwala R kaundinya

Analyst Programmer

Jwala is an introvert by personality and workaholic by passion. She doesn't enjoy sitting idle, so in her free time, she occupies herself by indulging in yoga, meditation and spending time with family. Jwala is also the core member of the Gateway Foundation - which works towards social work and community support. She motivated team members to participate in drives and donations, and is an active member herself. She wishes to learn to skate, play a musical instrument or to sing. She enjoys travelling and keeping herself updated about latest trends in technologies.
